JOHN HOWARD SOCIETY MEETS IN KELOWNA

Delegates from four branches of the John Howard Society met in Kelowna today to discuss regional business of the Kelowna, Penticton, Kamloops, and Vernon branches. The meeting was attended by Peter Stein, assistant director of the society, Vancouver, left, Graham Parker, member of the society's provincial board, and of the law faculty at the University of B.C., right, with Rev. Kutch Inayoshi, president of the Kelowna and district branch of the society. A total of 15 delegates attended the conference at the Capri Motor Inn, and they began their deliberations at 10:15 a.m. today. (Courier photo)

Fulton Fully "Backs Mac" On Higher Learning Plan

VANCOUVER (CP) — The basic framework of the Macdonald report on higher education in B.C. must be implemented within two to three years, E. Davis Fulton said Friday. The federal works minister and leader of the provincial Progressive Conservatives said the provincial government must also give the University of B.C. and the University of Victoria "the operating grants they require to meet increased enrolments and costs in the years ahead."

Cab Driver Tells Of Ordeal When 4 Escapees Took Over

MONTREAL (CP) — Israel Singer, the cab driver whose car was commandeered by four escaped convicts Thursday, said today "they looked like four nice young guys" when they hailed him. "In a story written for the Montreal Star, Mr. Singer said he thought the men, who minutes earlier had broken out of the detention cells at the Montreal courthouse, "might have been hockey players."

Castro Wipes Out Bands Of Rebels

HAVANA (AP) — The Castro government sent combat units of the regular army into action against three rebel bands Friday and wiped them out, a communique announced today. Among those killed in Matanzas province, the announcement said, was Juan Jose Castele Costa, identified as the U.S. Central Intelligence agency's rebel chief in the area.

PROROGUING OF LEGISLATURE

Queen Invited to Victoria

VICTORIA (CP) — British Columbia has asked Queen Elizabeth to take time out from her trip home to London to officiate at the closing ceremonies of the legislature. The Queen was asked by Lieutenant-Governor George Pearkes to extend the time of her scheduled brief stop in Vancouver Wednesday for plane refueling enroute to England from a tour of Australia. The Lieutenant-Governor offered the couple the facilities of government house here if the Queen agreed to prorogue the legislature either Wednesday or Thursday. The Lieutenant-Governor's request was made in a wire addressed to the Queen's secretary and read to the legislature by Premier Bennett. "If her majesty could prorogue the legislature it would give immense pleasure to all her loyal subjects," the message said. The Queen and her husband had an unexpected overnight stay in Vancouver on their way

ACCUSED IMPRESSARIO DIES IN DUAL OPERA-LIKE TRAGEDY

ROME (AP) — Ernest Arthur Boxmann, 33, New York impresario accused of shooting American opera singer Frances McCann to death last week, then wounding himself, died today at a Rome hospital. Spokesmen at Rome's Ateneo Maria Della Pietà Hospital said that the German-born Boxmann died of bronchial pneumonia. Boxmann had been recovering from the temple wound police said he inflicted with the same pistol that killed Miss McCann in a Rome hotel. Boxmann and Miss McCann had come to Rome March 15 from West Berlin where the lovely 31-year-old mother of four had been following a brilliant opera career. Boxmann, naturalized U.S. citizen had been managing her business affairs. In a series of love letters found by police in the slain singer's room, he had poured out declarations of love for her. Miss McCann was married to J. Walter Rodgers, a wholesale rug salesman in Altadena, Calif. She was known to be planning to quit her career in a few days to devote all her time to her family.

Dismembered Body Found In 3 Sacks Near Lillooet

LILLOOET, B.C. (CP) — Paris initially established, nor was of a human body, hacked up and stuffed into three burlap sacks, have been found in a ravine beside the old Cariboo cattle trail near here. The discovery, made Thursday by Indian rancher Louis Joe as he herded cattle along a dirt road, was not made public by RCMP until today. "We're treating this as murder," said Supt. John Harris, head of the RCMP detachment at Kamloops. Jr. Joe found two sacks, one containing two arms, the other parts of the victim's legs, in a ravine about 15 feet from the road. Then he spotted the third sack, containing the torso, about 50 feet away. DOG BROUGHT IN RCMP brought in a tracking dog in an unsuccessful attempt to find the victim's head. Supt. Harris said the remains will be shipped to Vancouver for examination by pathologists. Sex of the victim was not determined.

De Gaulle At Crisis Talks As French Strikes Continue

PARIS (Reuters) — Some 3,000 workers at the huge natural gas plant at Lacq in southwest France today voted to continue their two-week strike for more pay. The state-owned plant produces about half the natural gas consumed in France. In Paris, President de Gaulle was presiding over a cabinet meeting today which was expected to make a decisive move aimed at ending the three-week wave of strikes in nationalized industries. Decisions taken at the cabinet meeting may lead to a settlement of the three-week strike of 240,000 French coal miners. De Gaulle gave up a weekend at his country home at Colombey-les-Deux-Eglises to preside at the meeting. The government officials studied a 16-page report drawn up by a committee of "three wise men" named to investigate the lag in wages in nationalized industries behind wages in private industry. Committee chairman Pierre Masse said the report contained precise figures on the coal strike which began March 1 for an 11-per-cent pay increase.

Three Arab Nations Agree On Merger's "Cornerstone"

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — The United Arab Republic, Iraq and Syria were reported today to have agreed on six principles as the cornerstone of their projected federation. The Damascus newspaper, Sawt al Jamahir, usually informed, said these basic points were established in recent talks in Cairo: 1. The forthcoming merger should be a federation eventually developed into a pan-Arab union. 2. The federation should be like one state with one president. 3. Democratic freedom will be guaranteed for all political organizations advocating Arab unity and socialism. This would entail a ban on old line parties and Communists. 4. Interparty disputes should be avoided, possibly by a national charter combining all political organizations or the formation of an Algerian-style National Liberation Front. 5. The federal state should adopt socialism as its economic and social pattern. 6. The federation should be open to Algeria and Yemen, possibly with strong military, political, economic and cultural pacts.

Suspect Tuna Can Found In Saratoga

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — A second toxic can of tuna from the pack suspected of causing the death of two Detroit women was found on a grocery shelf in Saratoga, Calif. the state department of health reports. Dr. Malcolm H. Merrill, department director, said a toxic substance resembling botulism was detected in the spoiled and swollen tin found on the California store's shelf. The A. and P. food store chain withdrew all of its own brand of tuna from its stores following a finding of type E botulism, a rare poisoning, in the tuna can after the two Detroit deaths.

STOP PRESS NEWS

Fisherman Drowns Near Penticton PENTICTON (CP) — Adam Burt Adamson, 43, of nearby Oliver, was drowned Friday when he fell through thin ice while fishing in Twin Lakes, 15 miles west of here. Police said Adamson clung to the edge of the hole in the ice and screamed for help but by the time would-be rescuers arrived he had disappeared.

Hundreds Hit By Typhoid Epidemic ZERMATT, Switzerland (AP) — A Swiss widow, mother of 13, died in hospital today — the first fatal victim of the Zermatt typhoid epidemic. Nearly 300 persons now are believed affected in Switzerland and many other countries, including the United States, by the typhoid outbreak in this world-famous ski centre.

Bali Sends Out Desperate Plea

DENPASAR, Bali (AP) — An urgent request for rice and helicopters went out from this capital today in a desperate effort to save starving villagers isolated by a five-day deluge of lava. The death toll from the eruption of sacred Agung volcano stood at 1,384. The governor of Bali said he expected it to rise to at least 1,500, since many persons are missing and feared dead. More than 5,000 persons were reported isolated without food in the low of Karangasem, southeast of the smoldering volcano. Helicopters were requested from military authorities in East Java to ferry out people stranded in pockets surrounded by hot lava streams. But there was no indication here whether or when the appeals could be met.

MAY MOVE ISLANDERS Bali's Governor Anak Agung Sutedja told The Associated Press thousands of Balinese who lost their homes in the eruption may have to leave this lovely island forever. He said 75,000 persons, mostly farmers, have lost all they possessed. Another 65,000 to be evacuated as soon as possible may also become homeless. Sutedja plans to leave for Jakarta, the Indonesian capital, Sunday to confer with President Sukarno, who has declared Bali a major disaster zone. The governor said this thickly populated island of 2,500,000 people has no room to accommodate all refugees on new land. The only solution, he said, would be to move them to other islands. The flow of lava stopped Friday, after a five-day deluge. But a volcano expert on duty near the mountain predicted it might continue to erupt for at least another two months.

Seven Killed In Auto Crash

ADDISON, N.Y. (AP) — Seven persons, including four members of one family, were killed Friday night in the collision of three automobiles on Route 17 just east of this village in south-central New York. State police said one car crossed into the opposite lane of the two-lane blacktop highway, sideswiped a second car, and smashed head-on into the third. The gasoline tank on the first car exploded, troopers said, and the vehicle was engulfed in flames. The three occupants died. Also dead were the four occupants of the third car, members of a family from nearby Cameron Mills. The three persons in the car that was sideswiped escaped without injury.

U.S. Stalls Brazil Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States stalled Friday on an announcement of large-scale financial aid to Brazil. The delay coincided with reports that the Brazilian government would not hinder a Cuban solidarity congress in Rio de Janeiro next Thursday. A principal purpose of the congress is to give support to Cuban Premier Castro. Francisco Dantas, Brazil's finance minister, is in Washington. Reports said it had been planned to announce, perhaps Friday, a credit of about $500,000,000 when the news of the Brazilian government's position came. Brazil's presidential press secretary, Raul Riff, said in Brasilia the Brazilian constitution guarantees freedom of assembly.

Algeria Seizes European Lands

ALGIERS (Reuters) — Algeria published decrees today under which the government will take over property abandoned by Europeans who have left the country including some 2,400,000 acres of Algeria's best land and about 500 industrial enterprises. The decree does not formally abolish the property rights of legal owners but establishes an administrative trusteeship which is just short of nationalization. The United Arab Republic, Iraq and Syria have agreed to draw up separate blueprints. Each plan will be discussed in Cairo. Then a unified plan will be voted on in the three nations.

Third Quad Dies

NAPLES, Italy (AP) — The third of quadruplets, born here 10 days ago died Friday night. The fourth child, a girl, remained under incubation. The two boys and two girls born to Mrs. Rosa Giandagli, 35, weighed less than 20 pounds at birth. All were placed in incubators but respiratory failure claimed the lives of three.

Discharged Man Accused In Fatal San Jose Blast

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — A discharged maintenance man has killed three persons and injured more than 70 Friday. Ricardo Mello, 27, who left the boiler 40 minutes before the blast flunked part of a lie detector test and admitted tampering with the boiler, said chief of detectives Barton Collins. He was held for investigation of homicide. Mello, who had been told his job was being turned over to a maintenance firm, left the six-foot-high boiler in the basement of J. C. Penney's at 4 p.m. The explosion wrecked a drugstore on the building's main floor, filled the air with glass shivers and ripped a huge hole in the downtown heart of this city of 200,000. Detective Collins said Mello

New Blueprint For UK Welfare

MANCHESTER, England (Reuters) — The opposition Labour party said today it will soon publish a blueprint for social reform which will be as sweeping as the report by Lord Beveridge that laid the foundation of the British welfare state in 1942. Party Leader Harold Wilson told a party meeting the new policy proposals "will be more revolutionary than the Beveridge report—every line will reflect the philosophy of the socialist state."

Saud's Plane May Be Buried

CUNEO, Italy (AP) — Speculation today that the wreckage of King Saud's private jetliner might be buried beneath a massive avalanche. Not a trace of the four-engined Conquest has been sighted since it crashed in this Alpine region four days ago with 18 persons aboard. The plane was carrying members of King Saud's household from Geneva to Nice, France, where the Saudi Arabian monarch is vacationing.

Old Bones Found

Leather-Lunged Heckler Almost Defeats Pearson

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—A leather-lunged heckler came close to breaking up Liberal Leader Pearson's speech here Friday night to a boisterous audience of about 2,000 Newfoundlanders.

A steady barrage of shouting from the heckler turned the meeting into the wildest, most hectic scene of Mr. Pearson's election campaign so far.

Premier Joey Smallwood quelled the loudest outburst from the heckler, a husky former football player, by a direct appeal to the audience. Mr. Pearson finally struck on a formula that kept him quiet—an invitation to the platform for handshakes all round.

The young man's interruptions broke up much of Mr. Pearson's 40-minute speech and brought angry shouts from the crowd that packed the Church Lads Brigade Armories, a hall owned by an Anglican Church boys' organization.

On top of all that, a running fire of encouraging interjections from a half-dozen tiny enthusiasts added a zany note to the proceedings.

One of them ended up on the platform behind Mr. Pearson, where he emitted sporadic cheers during the rest of the meeting.

REMAINS CALM

Through it all, Mr. Pearson remained calm and managed to get across much of his message.

A promise to give fishermen equal treatment with western farmers, a promise to extend Canadian fisheries jurisdiction 12 miles offshore from the present three-mile limit, and an appeal for a Liberal election sweep of all seven Newfoundland constituencies.

It was the Liberal leader's final appearance in a four-day campaign swing through the Atlantic provinces. He was scheduled to fly to Ottawa today for a weekend rest before his last two-week campaign drive to the April 8 election.

The heckler, who identified himself to reporters as Edward Butler—"call me Gabby Butler"—struck early in Mr. Pearson's speech.

Standing near the front of the hall at one side, he launched into a tirade that brought Mr. Pearson to a dead stop.

The Liberal leader repeatedly interjected with reasoned requests that he be allowed to complete his speech.

"Go on, Mr. Pearson, shout him down," called out one indignant woman.

JOEY TAKES COMMAND

But it didn't stop Gabby Butler. Finally Premier Smallwood took direct action. Seizing the microphone he asked the crowd: "Do you think somebody sent him here to break up the meeting?"

"Yes," the crowd replied. "Will we let him stay or put him out?"

"Put him out," many shouted. "No, no. Let him stay," the premier said, and the heckler stayed.

Later he moved to the other side of the hall and resumed his interruptions, with uncompromising remarks. Finally Mr. Pearson, at the premier's suggestion, invited him to the platform for handshakes all round and he subsided.

Estimates Approved Says Witness

VICTORIA (CP)—A British Columbia department of highways official said Friday federal public works officials completely agreed with his estimates of material moved from a Trans-Canada Highway project that is the subject of graft investigations.

Eric Barclay, district engineer on Project 819 in 1957, was the second provincial official to state that federal authorities were satisfied.

E. C. Webster, provincial director of construction, earlier testified that he and Mr. Barclay and other provincial and federal officials had inspected the highway in 1958 and had found nothing wrong.

The hearing by the legislature's committee on public accounts was started after allegations were made that estimates of materials to be moved had been altered so that there was more payment to the contractors.

The committee met for 20 minutes in-camera today considering what witnesses to call in what order after Mr. Barclay finished his testimony. Mr. Barclay was then questioned closely on figures relating to the project.

Thursday night he denied allegations of $100,000 over-payment on the project or any wrong doing in alterations of estimates.

Contractors on highways projects received more money for removing solid rock than for other materials, the committee was told.

WEEK'S NEWS IN REVIEW

Volcano Erupts In Bali, Paris Chaos, Peace Bid

Plan "wall around Cuba" Volcano disaster hits Bali Face of campaign speeds up

Western countries on both sides of the Atlantic conferred this week on plans for joint action in the cold war.

President Kennedy travelled to Costa Rica to meet with six Central American presidents. The purpose: To consider the threat of subversion from Cuba and to work out economic plans designed to raise living standards in the turbulent area.

In Paris meanwhile the permanent council of the 15-nation NATO alliance met to discuss the sticky problem of joint nuclear defence.

WILL ISOLATE CUBA

At the Central American conference Kennedy promised in a Monday night speech to isolate Cuba and prevent its agents from infiltrating the rest of Latin America.

"We will build a wall around Cuba—not a wall of mortar and brick or barbed wire but a wall of dedicated men determined to protect their own freedom and sovereignty," he said.

In a declaration issued Tuesday night the president announced plans for a ministers' meeting in April to work out new curbs on travel to and from Cuba. It also urged a speedup of economic integration of the Central American nations.

WON'T INVADE

Back in Washington Thursday Kennedy told a press conference there would be no invasion or blockade of Cuba at present, although concerted action would be taken to prevent Cuban arms and saboteurs from getting into Latin America.

He also said that the Soviet Union has removed some 3,000 troops from Cuba "in these past weeks" and he hoped more would go out by the end of the month.

In another Cuban development, two groups opposing the Fidel Castro government staged a raid on Cuba Sunday and claimed to have shelled a Russian military camp and a Russian ship. The U.S. state department said it was strongly opposed to such attacks since they did not really "weaken the grip of the Castro regime."

UNITY EMPHASIZED

At the Paris conference Britain's foreign secretary, the Earl of Home, urged that the NATO ministerial meeting at Ottawa in May set up a multi-nation NATO nuclear force from existing national forces.

He said later that all member nations except France favored such a force and that he was encouraged by the emphasis on unity of the alliance.

France, which has angered many of its allies by remaining aloof from the NATO nuclear plans and by barring Britain from the European Common Market, continued to struggle with serious labor troubles during the week.

Hundreds of thousands of French industries, protesting that their wages don't match those of private industry, have gone on sporadic or prolonged strikes.

The French came under attack from another quarter after they were reported to have set off an atomic explosion Monday at one of their bases in the Algerian Sahara.

Algeria called the test a "direct attack" on its independence and sovereignty and demanded revision of the agreements under which France retained the bases after Algeria became independent last year.

BALI HARD HIT

A violent eruption from a sacred volcano shattered the peace of the beautiful South Pacific island of Bali this week.

The governor of the Indonesian island said at least 1,100 people had died in the eruption that began Sunday and lasted five days.

He said 75,000 others here may have lost their livelihood homeless and another 200,000 as a blanket of lava and ash covered their rice fields. Thousands of persons were fleeing the area of the Agung volcano in fear of renewed eruptions.

END IN SIGHT

Canadian politicians, heading toward the final fortnight of the campaign for the April 8 federal election, crisscrossed the country with bewildering speed this week.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker returned to Ontario after a snowy weekend in the Atlantic provinces, then moved on to Edmonton, doubled back to Regina and pushed west again for whistle stops through southern Saskatchewan and Alberta.

On the way he charged that the Liberals had waged a "calculated filibuster to sabotage Parliament" and that they were resorting to "doom and gloom" preaching about Canada after campaign gimmicks had failed.

Liberal Leader Pearson, moving eastward from Quebec, said Canada's standing in the world is at its lowest ebb and accused the prime minister's Progressive Conservatives of conducting an anti-American campaign "not worthy of Canada."

Social Credit Leader Thompson travelled from Ontario into western Canada while his Quebec lieutenant, Real Caouette, struck sparks with a report that his aides had warned him that Liberal organizers were planning a traffic "accident" that would send him to hospital.

New Democratic Party Leader Douglas also moved west from Ontario and unveiled one of the few new policy statements of the week in the Vancouver area Thursday night, calling for increased federal grants to universities.

World briefs: The United States charged Sunday that two Soviet reconnaissance planes penetrated 30 miles into U.S. airspace in Alaska last week.

Eight men broke out of police custody in Montreal Thursday night but four were quickly recaptured and the others, all convicted rapists, were picked up Friday. ... The Bear, a sturdy, 90-year-old auxiliary barquentine that twice took Admiral Richard Byrd to the Antarctic, sank without casualties south of Nova Scotia Tuesday night after breaking loose from a tug. ... Eighteen persons were killed when a Comet jet airliner owned by King Saud of Saudi Arabia crashed in the Italian Alps Wednesday.

WEEK IN THE WEST

Army demolition experts spent five days checking for unexploded bombs in the Vernon area of British Columbia after two Boy Scouts were killed last weekend by a two-ton mortar bomb that had lain undetected beside a country road since the Second World War. The search by 30 soldiers uncovered seven more bombs, four of them of the high-explosive type, and three smoke devices. Donald Hope, 15, and Grant Morgan, 15, were believed to have been clearing a roadway when the mortar was struck with an axe.

Alberta's one-man rural commission investigating federal practices continued hearings in Calgary and Red Deer. Chief Justice C. C. McLaughlin of the Alberta Supreme Court trial division was investigating federal procedures that come under three provincial acts. The Red Deer Kiwanis Club presented a brief asking that a law be passed prohibiting pre-paid funeral salesmen from operating at homes for the aged. F. W. Horn, spokesman for the club, said he had managed to stop salesmen from calling at Twilight Lodge, a Kiwanis home for the aged. But salesmen were still visiting married couples living in Twilight Cottages. Another Kiwanis project, Chief Justice McLaughlin said he will demand financial statements from every private funeral and cemetery operator in the province. The statements will be turned over to auditors for checking.

$500,000 FIRE

MISSION CITY (CP) — The main mill and shale storage shed of the Mosher Cedar Products Limited shale operations was destroyed in a fire here Thursday. Officials said damage was about $100,000 and the mill will be out of operation for two months.

FIREMEN IN STALEMATE

VANCOUVER (CP) — Vancouver and its firemen's union are deadlocked on the union's demand for a 43-hour week as the issue is expected to go to arbitration. Vancouver firemen now work a 48-hour week. The city said a 43-hour week would cost an extra $600,000 a year.

JOBLESS FIGURE DROPS

LONDON (Reuters)—The total number of unemployed in Britain between Feb. 11 fell by more than 176,000 to 701,930, the labor ministry announced Thursday. The February jobs figure of 878,356 was the highest for 16 years and represented 3.9 per cent of the work force. The new figure represents 3.1 per cent of the work force.

Wide Choice Of Candidates May Set Canadian Record

Canada's voters may have a wider choice of candidates April 8 than ever before in a federal election.

An unofficial compilation by The Canadian Press showed 1,011 candidates in the field two days before the close of nominations Monday, March 25. The record, set last June, was 1,018.

If the pattern of previous elections is followed there will be more than enough nominations by the 2 p.m. local standard time closing Monday to pass last year's mark.

Progressive Conservatives and Liberals will have candidates for all the 265 seats at stake. The New Democratic Party has 228 nominees so far and Social Credit has 220. There are 13 Communists and 20 independents.

In the 1962 election, the PCs entered a full slate, Liberals 264, Social Credit 230, NDP 218, Communists 12 and independents 27.

There will be at least 42 women candidates this year compared with 27 last year, when five were elected. The record year for women was 1953, when there were 48 in the field.

The PCs and NDP have 14 women candidates apiece, Liberals and Social Credit six each, with a Communist and independent completing the total.

The men were alleged to have been members of a Pogo gang sent out to assassinate Chief Kaiser Matanzima, head of the Transkei Territory. A thortly, who is expected to be first "prime minister" of the Transkei bantustan — African state.

Roadways Important In Planning

Our environment is a total unit and in planning you must look at the town as a whole and not any one single component. Dr. Donald Jackson, planning department UBC, told the 35 people attending the special planning meeting in council chambers, today. The discussions continued after lunch.

"We're concerned with the relationship of parts of the town and not separate components."

"The implications of the automobile in planning are fantastic," said Dr. Jackson. "and if we are concerned with total environment we must be concerned with road development."

INSEPARABLE

"When we have new roads we have new land development, highways and land-use are inseparable and should be looked at initially," he said.

"We shouldn't look at it as asphalt or concrete but the effect the road will have on land development."

"Where there is a new road constructed there is pressure and demand for new residential development."

Dr. Jackson described the Deas Island tunnel and freeway as the major formative force in Vancouver.

"The Deas Island freeway," he said, "has had a greater impact in shaping greater Vancouver than any zoning bylaws have."

Dr. Jackson describes the following facts as being effective when the route was built.

"Time travel is reduced substantially; cost of travel is greatly reduced, because operating costs are less on a main road than on a congested road; effect of travel distance is reduced because it is not the distance that has to be considered, but the time of travel; and accident rates are fewer."

Ald. E. R. Water, chairman of the Kelowna advisory planning commission, told the meeting, today's special meeting was held in conjunction with the current planning seminars "to continue planning interest in the community and educate the people."

MRS. CHARLOTTE DEWHURST, representing the Kelowna Lodge No. 36 Friday night presented the first and second place winners in the district finals for the UN pilgrimage trip to New York with their trophies after a three-hour impromptu speech contest in Dr. Knox junior-senior high school in Kelowna.

Immaculata Student Wins

Miss Margaret Casorso Friday night won the Kelowna semi-finals for the 1963 pilgrimage to the United Nations.

The pilgrimage is jointly sponsored by the Kelowna Rebekah Lodge No. 36 and the Orchard City Lodge No. 36, Independent Order of Oddfellows.

Miss Casorso, from Immaculata high school, now will compete with other Okanagan Valley students at Vernon next weekend in the contest finals.

Roland Whinton, of George Pringle high in Westbank, who was runner-up will also take part in the Vernon finals.

Seventeen speeches were given before 60 visitors at the Dr. Knox high school.

TWO PARTS

Marks obtained on last night's impromptu speech entitled, "What Impressed Me Most About the History of the UN?" were combined with scores achieved on the 500 word essay, "How Would the Admission of Communist China to the United Nations Affect World Affairs?"

The first and second place winners were presented with trophies by Mrs. Charlotte Dewhurst. Schaeffer pens were presented to the remainder of the contestants by Mrs. J. F. Prior.

IMPRESSED

In her speech, Miss Casorso said the thing that impressed her most was the work being done by the UN in the fields of peace and the aiding of underdeveloped countries.

She cited the work done by the UN in the crisis between Greece and Russia, Iran and Russia and Korea and the Communists.

She also outlined the work done by UNESCO with its aid in education of the illiterate nations; UNICEF, giving aid to the war-stricken and helping 55 million mothers and children each year; and FAO, improving the standards of forestry, fishing and agriculture.

"The main problem is, she said, 'Do we understand their problems?'"

HUNGER

Ronald Whinton said he was impressed with the way history was being made in the UN with their freedom from hunger campaign.

"Most of the speakers were quite good. The judging was quite close and I learned a great deal about the UN," said Ted Cameron, spokesman for the judges.

Art Lynn said, "For a group that hasn't had too much experience in public speaking, they did very well. Some of them made good use of their hands and they had very good voices. They also had a very fine knowledge of their subject."

COMPETITORS

Other students competing were: Joan Lee from George Pringle; June Chips of Rutland high school; Cheryl Steinhauer, Marlene Gellert, and Silke Andersen representing Kelowna high school; speakers from Immaculata high school were: Les Giroux, Victoria Wilson, Diane Schlosser, Carol Hewer, John Aquilon, Sheryl Baker and Gregory Amundrud; speakers from the guest school were: Vivian Ozaki, Marvin Dodds and Brian Melver.

Judges were: Mrs. A. L. Lynn, A. L. Lynn, Don Wort, Bill Bennett, Otto Gerlach and Ted Cameron.

MUSICALLY SPEAKING

With BETHEL STEELE

Thursday night, Overture Concert Association presented Nicanor Zabaleta, harpist, in the final concert of the current series.

The origins of the harp date back to antiquity. There are paintings on the walls of a burying-place in Thebes in Egypt which belong to the 13th century B.C.

The harp is the only musical instrument in its modern construction with the mechanism of the double action with fixed tones not formed by the ear and touch of the player, that has separate notes for sharps, flats and naturals.

The problems of scale fingerings are slight as the same fingering does for all keys thus making technical problems easier than on most instruments.

Because this is so the performer is free to devote himself to the making of effects not procurable on other stringed instruments. The possibilities for light and shade are legion on a limited scale. The harp is an intimate instrument and should be played in a small hall when used as a solo instrument. It is used in the orchestra for color effects.

Mr. Zabaleta's recital could be called a small gem of a concert. He played music belonging to the classical and romantic period.

The Beethoven variations on a Swiss theme were perfectly stylized as was the Dussek Sonata which, from the standpoint of technical perfection and rhythmic flow, was the most satisfying.

The Albeniz Sonata was faster than one might expect it to be played thus interlarding with the wonderful rhythmic expressiveness so much a part of all Spanish music.

It was in the last two programmed pieces, the Serenade by Chavarrri and the Chanson dans la nuit by Salzedo, both Spanish composers, that Mr. Zabaleta was finally able to communicate with his audience.

This music glowed and shimmered and spoke to us with liberality and emotional appeal. The Chanson gave us a taste of the modern idiom to which the harp is particularly suited. Mr. Zabaleta's glissandos were thrilling in their changes of tonal quality.

There were times when one might desire greater dynamic differences than we were given. The size of the hall could have had something to do with this feeling as the harp tone cannot be projected as can that of the piano or violin family. One needed to be right at the front to hear all the treble which in this case was always clear and effectively enunciated.

Overture Concerts Association has given Kelowna a very well balanced series this past year and the harp concert provided novelty which is usually lacking outside the large urban centres.

It was unfortunate there was some overlapping of dates in the valley. Perhaps this can be avoided next year.

The concert committee is now accepting renewals for next year's series. A large membership can represent an outstanding roster of fine artists.

This column says "Thank you" to Overture for the music we have enjoyed so much this past year.

AREA RED CROSS COLLECTIONS UP

A. J. Gilroy, Red Cross campaign chairman for the Kelowna branch, today said the annual campaign had possibilities of over-reaching last year's total.

"We have had very few returns in yet," said Mr. Gilroy, "but three of the team captains reporting so far have collected more money than they did last year."

Quota for the March campaign is $11,000. Kelowna has never failed to reach its annual quota. Last year a total of $11,975 was realized with the same quota.

Rogers Pass Use Increases

The weekly traffic report from Glacier National Park superintendent, B. R. Styles, shows the number of vehicles and passengers using the Rogers Pass route, increasing.

For the week ending March 16, there were 304 more vehicles than the previous week which showed 2,669 vehicles going over the pass. The number of passengers jumped from 6,574 for the week ending March 9 to 7,493 for the week of March 16 an increase of 919 passengers.

The condition of the Trans-Canada Highway no longer requires motorists to use winter tread tires or carry chains. While the restriction has been lifted temporarily, motorists should realize the spring snow storms could make chains or winter tires a necessity," Mr. Styles said.

Thirteen Bylaws Passed By Council

Thirteen bylaws, to provide for local improvements, were passed by city council Monday night. They dealt with:

- Sidewalk on St. Paul street from Bernard to Clement.
- On Devonshire avenue from Briarwood to Princess.
- On Princess street from Harvey to Vernon Rd.
- On Osprey avenue from Pandosy to Bath street.
- On Cavston avenue from Glenmore to Graham.
- On Briarwood avenue from Devonshire to Princess.
- On Briarwood avenue from Chandler to Princess.
- On Fuller avenue from Ethel to Glenmore.
- On Richter street from Rowcliffe to lot 10 plan 549.
- On Ellis street from Doyle to lot 3, plan 645.
- On Abbott street from Burne to Lake.
- On Abbott street from Lake to Park and from Burne to Lake.

District Dogs Must Have Tags

On April 1, 1963, action in the form of prosecution of dog owners and/or destruction of dogs will be taken with respect to unlicensed dogs outside the limits of the city, said Staff Sgt. T. J. Kelly, Kelowna detachment of the RCMP today.

The sections from the "Sheep Protection Act" govern the licensing of dogs outside the city limits.

No person can have or keep a dog in his possession without first obtaining a licence under the Act.

The licences expire on the 31st of December, following the date on which the licence takes effect.

Fees for the licensing are $1 for each male dog and $2 for each female dog.

Anyone violating any provision of this Act is liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

New Industry Starting Here

A new manufacturing industry is taking shape in Kelowna. Charles and Dick Dore are now building a small A-shaped cabin, designed by John Woodworth and when this second model is completed the group will be ready to go into production.

A number of orders have been received on a tentative basis.

"We need an industry in Kelowna to fill out the off-season building program," said Mr. Woodworth, today, "and construction of the 'Porta Cabana' could be it."

The cabin is a completely equipped three room home designed and constructed to enable it to be moved just like a house trailer.

It is equipped with automatic propane heat, hot water tank, and lights and a counter range. It has a trailer type water and sewage hookup, shower and flush toilet, cabinet kitchen designed with plenty of cupboard space and a 9 x 15 foot bed-sitting room with a cathedral ceiling.

It has an upstairs bedroom which sleeps two and is so designed that fold up berths can be added.

"The entire frame of the cottage is insulated with a friction-fit fiberglass insulation for below zero weather," said Mr. Woodworth.

Uniforms For School Girls Decided By Mission Creek PTA

At a recent meeting of the Mission Creek PTA, it was decided to have school uniforms for the girls. Though not compulsory, some students have been wearing them.

A meeting is to be called soon to discuss any changes parents may desire.

Officers of the Mission Creek PTA are: president, Mrs. C. H. DePuyffer; vice-president, Mrs. George Kozuh; secretary, Mrs. Arnold Buhman; and treasurer, Mrs. Hamilton Lachell.

The East Kelowna and Mission Creek PTAs are now jointly sponsoring the Cub and Boy Scouts of the district. Meetings are held in the East Kelowna Community Hall.

The Unitarian Service Committee has been chosen as a project for this year and support through donations of clothing will be carried out. A penny auction has been held and part of the proceeds have gone to USC. Henry Bernard will answer any questions for those wishing to help in this project.

The PTA has been performing other small services such as supplying treats for school children at Christmas and serving refreshments to parents visiting the school for open house.

Miss Jean Thornloe showed slides and spoke on her European trip. Gordon Herbert gave an account of the work done by the students' fund organization.

The subject, "What the Home and the School Can Expect of Each Other in the Education of the Child" was discussed by a panel made up of two teachers and two parents. Mr. and Mrs. Graham Tweedy gave their views as teachers and Mrs. Fred Chamberlain and George Kazuh represented the parents. Principal Sam Janzen was the moderator.

Plans are being made for the annual spring tea, to be held on April 24. Mrs. Louis Rannopone is convener.

Charges Vary In Friday Court Eight Come Before Magistrate

Eight people appeared in court Friday before Magistrate D. M. White and six pleaded guilty to charges under the Motor Vehicle Act, the Government Liquor Act and the Criminal Code.

Robert Louis Renaud, 653 Broadway Ave., Kelowna, pleaded guilty to a charge of failing to stop at a stop sign and was fined $15 and costs.

Mrs. Ruby Evelyn Shilton, 1376 Richter St., Kelowna, pleaded guilty to a charge of failing to yield the right of way to oncoming traffic and was fined $25 and costs.

August Warren Matheson, 1361 Highland Dr., Kelowna, pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding within the city of Kelowna and was fined $20 and costs.

Magnus Matthew Turk, R.R. 2, Kelowna, pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding on Highway 97 north of Kelowna. During the trial evidence was given that Turk had been clocked at speeds up to 65 mph in a 50 mph zone by two RCMP highway patrol cars. He was found guilty and fined $50 and costs.

Leonard Dovick, Kelowna, charged his plea from not guilty to guilty on a charge of theft of goods valued under $50.

Dovick, although not a direct participant in the theft, transported the persons responsible to and from the crime and in doing so was directly involved. He was given a three month suspended sentence and was required to place a $100 bond in his own recognizance.

Two cases were remanded until later dates. John Walls, 1659 Kelgin Cres., Kelowna, pleaded not guilty to charge of speeding and was remanded to April 11.

No Changes Seen On Main Highways

The B. C. Department of Highways in Kelowna reports no changes in conditions of the main highways.

Allison Pass — very light snow some frost heaves, otherwise good.

Princeton — frost heaves falling rock, Road good.

Rogers Pass — mainly bare with slippery sections, sanded, Rolling rock.

Fraser Canyon — light rain continues. Road in good except for construction areas rough. No closure this weekend.

Lumber Group Names Charpentier

J. P. Charpentier, Bluebird Road, Kelowna, was elected to the board of directors at this week's annual general meeting of the Interior Lumber Manufacturers' Association.

Also elected to the directorate were: A. P. Lloyd, Canoe; D. W. Brown, Castlegar; J. J. Carmichael, Sicamous; H. C. Hoover, Armstrong; G. H. Jenkinson, Cranbrook; W. Larson, Lumby; A. Morrow, Golden; H. C. Nelson, Galloway; B. Neville Smith, Creston; W. L. Smith, Armstrong; and R. West, Nelson.

J. W. Munsie was re-elected president, W. J. Smith of Armstrong in honorary president, vice-president is I. H. McDermid of Lumby and A. D. MacDonald is secretary-manager.

Seven Knights Initiated Here

Seven new members were initiated into the Father Pandosy Council Knights of Columbus this week under the direction of council officers.

New members are: Joseph Yochim Joseph Bulach and Matthew Zarr, Kelowna; Robert Milne and Albert Volk, Rutland; Dan Duggan, Salmon Arm; and Peter Duggan, Lumby.

Mr. Duggan and Mr. Dyck will become members of the St. James Council Vernon. Leo Gauthier of the Vernon council has transferred his membership to Kelowna.

Members of the Kelowna council are active in the current Red Cross drive. A number of the members also attended the three day blood donor clinic held this week.

The council will be represented at today's John Howard Society regional conference by its members.

The second and third degree initiation for the Valley will be held in Penticton, Sunday, March 31.

Dog Show Sunday

The Kelowna and District Kennel Club is holding a sanction dog show and obedience trial in the Centennial Hall, Sunday, March 24. The show gets underway at 10 a.m.

The sanction show differs from the licensed show in that scores obtained do not count toward any obedience degree or championship title.

Dogs from throughout the valley will be featured. Conformation Judge will be Leslie Rogers from Vancouver and obedience Judge is Jack Cooper of Kelowna.

Trophies will be awarded for the best dog in the show; and for each of the groups of sporting, hounds, working, terriers, toys and non-sporting canines.

There will also be a trophy for high-scoring dog in obedience. All together, there are 11 trophies and ribbons to be won.

"We have about 50 entries and are expecting a good show," said Mrs. Jack Gould, show secretary.

Engineering Institute Prexy Attends Kelowna Meeting

F. L. Lawton, president of the Engineering Institute of Canada will attend the executive meeting of the central B. C. branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada, to be held in Kelowna on March 29.

The branch chairman will meet President Lawton at Ellison Field at 1:40 p.m.

Later in the afternoon while a tea party is held at 1003 Harvey Ave. for wives of executive members: president Lawton will meet the executive of the central B. C. branch and this will be followed by a social hour at 6:15 and an informal smorgasbord dinner at 7:00.

After meeting the Mayor of Kelowna, Mr. Lawton will give an address which will be followed by a dance.

On March 30 and 31, Mr. Lawton will remain in Kelowna and visit the Okanagan Lake Bridge and a packing plant in the Kelowna area.

Physiotherapy Group Meets; First Time Since Inauguration

In its first meeting since inauguration in November 1962, the Okanagan branch of the B.C. Canadian Physiotherapy Association met in the physiotherapy department of Vernon Jubilee Hospital this week.

There were nine members present from Kamloops, Vernon, Kelowna and Penticton.

The executive, elected at the November meeting, is: Miss Joan Critchley, CARRS, Kelowna president; Miss Joan Pontoon, CARRS Penticton, vice-president;

Horn Trophy To Hudson's Bay

The Kelowna Hudson's Bay Company, for the second consecutive time, has been awarded the Horn Memorial trophy, following the Red Cross Blood Donor clinic this week. Royce Bazett, committee chairman in charge of awards, said today.

The trophy is in competition at Kelowna clinics, for the firm with over 25 employees with the highest percentage of employees donating blood.

The Jaycee trophy, awarded to the service club with the highest percentage of members donating, was won by the Kelowna Lions Club. The Kiwanis Club won that trophy at the fall clinic.

Final figures for the competition for the city shield will not be in until late next month. Kamloops leads the four-city race at present with Kelowna out of the running since they did not reach the Kamloops figure of 1,329 pints of blood. Kelowna collected 1,298 pints at the three-day clinic.

Washington Apple Festival Sends Royalty On B.C. Tour

The royal family of the Washington state apple blossom festival will visit Kelowna for a day and a half early next week. They will begin their tour with appearances Monday in Okanagan, Wash., at 9:30 a.m.; Tonasket at 10:15 and Oroville at 11:15. They will meet Kelowna's mayor and city council Monday evening and visit the Rotary Tuesday.

The festival is in Wenatchee May 24, just as thousands of apple trees in the area reach full bloom.

The annual celebration sprang from a Ladies' Musical Club event in 1920.

Since 1921, the Wenatchee Chamber of Commerce has sponsored the celebration with more events being added each year.

Friday morning, May 2, the school parade provides fun for 3,500 students in costumes they create, as they march to music of bands from North Central Washington schools.

That evening the Apple Blossom Queen and two princesses, chosen January 30, are crowned by the Governor of Washington in a dramatic pageant.

Saturday's two-hour grand parade, featuring 40 floats, is one of the top 10 in the nation. Bands form in the Apple Bowl after the parade for a big musical "half-time" entertainment.

Another event publicized by the royal tour is the Washington state art exhibition from April 12 through May 5, featuring artists of the western United States, Canada and Mexico.

Joke on Dominant Sex Far From a Funny One

The organization of a men's auxiliary to the Voice of Women in Powell River is good for a laugh from most audiences. But this switch of the sexes is not funny for those who must deal with the tragic consequences inherent in the turnabout. Knowledgeable women, women who are actively engaged in dealing with social problems, are as disturbed by the trend as are men whose business it is to analyze and correct whatever is damaging to the family and the community. These know that where the mother is the stronger influence in the home the children are the victims.

Eighty per cent of the girls who give birth to illegitimate children are the products of homes in which the mother is dominant. Most of the boys who are convicted for automobile offences are from homes where the father's influence is weaker than the mother's. Both of these recent discoveries make the turnabout of parental roles a matter of community concern and not just a private matter of the individual home.

Social scientists see many causes of this reversal: the absence of the father from the home on business or pleasure; "Momism" the reaction to the stern patriarch type of father of the past; the emancipation of women; and others of a more specific nature.

It must be said that many women who are dominant mothers are in no sense domineering and would be delighted to have their husbands take their proper place as head of the home. And it must be remembered that, until this generation, the distorted personalities and the delinquency of children were most often due to the excessive power of the male parent, and the abuse of his power to dominate his wife and family.

It is plain, however, that the removal of the father from the headship of the family has produced problems more numerous and tragic to the family and community.

Christianity made this alarming situation possible and, wherever Christianity flourishes, women are not chattels to be used or discarded. They are persons with status and freedom unknown to women, Jew, Roman, or Greek, before the church emancipated them. In whatever home women have been denied what Christianity demands for them, that home is not Christian.

It was in the context of an entirely new status and freedom that St. Paul wrote to the women of Ephesus: "Wives be subject to your husbands as to the Lord; for the husband is the head of the church, even as Christ is the head of the Church." Were there dominant mothers then who had become the head of the family? Were there children then who were the victims of the reversal of parental roles? Were there husbands then (as now) who willingly abdicated their position and were blissfully content to let their wives be the head of the family? We do not have the facts but we do have enough of the facts today to cause every father and mother to take a hard look at their own homes. And place the headship of the family where it properly belongs.

Those who have done this have discovered that St. Paul has been right all along. Satisfying and healthy relationships between husband and wife, parents and children, have developed. And the parents have taken out the best insurance against their son's appearing in court and their daughter's confinement in a home for unwed mothers.—Rev. A. Birse, St. Paul's United Church.

Election Briefs

That man Caouette, does he really expect us to believe his latest—that the Liberal party plans to stage an "accident" in which he will be injured. Politics are politics in Quebec, we know, but surely Mr. Caouette does not think we are naive enough to believe his latest wild dream.

Conservative candidate in Vancouver Centre, Mr. Douglas Jung, has called the Liberals "the greatest do-nothing government in the history of Canada." This, when Mr. Jung was a member of the House from 1957 to 1962!

Sacred Leader Robert Thompson is advocating a seaway from the Rockies to Hudson's Bay, to make Edmonton a seaport. His estimated cost is only $3,000,000,000. Why doesn't he throw in another couple of billion and, to avoid the ice in Hudson Bay, run his seaway right to the Head of the Lakes?

NDP Leader Tommy Douglas is still going about the country talking about the socialization of industry. He should know all about it. After all look at the experience he had in Saskatchewan where all attempts at socializing business flopped so badly Mr. Douglas moved to the national arena.

Gimmickry is one thing that Canadian politics can do without. Some other countries may find it necessary to dress up their election campaigns with extravagant forms of press agency and hoopla but this is one country that does not. Thus it is that we feel the Liberal party organization made a mistake when it introduced its late-lamented "truth squad", its homing pigeons which did not home and its rather dreary election coloring book. Canadians simply aren't susceptible to this kind of corny gimmickry. It repels them and tends to make them suspect the motives and maturity of its political promoters. As far as we are concerned, it is up to leaders and candidates to win elections on the basis of ability and of policy, not side-shows of entertainment and illusion.

By Any Other Name...

This is the season of the year when seed catalogues are avidly read by the amateur gardener. It is the season, too, when the average gardener is confused by the common names for flowers, vegetables and shrubs.

Of course, most seed catalogues usually list the scientific or the Latin name which is the same in any part of the world. However, the common name may vary from one locality to another.

Sometimes it is the windflower, in other places the anemone; sometimes the red hot power, sometimes the Tritoma. Spirea and bridal wreath are both used for one of our most popular shrubs. Many people seem to think that painted daisies and pyrethrum are two different flowers, but they are the same. So are bergamot and bee balm; snapdragon and antirrhinum; digitalis and foxglove; helichrysum and strawflowers; eschscholtzia and California poppy, and so on. The Rose of Sharon is sometimes called the hollyhock bush, but is neither a hollyhock nor a rose, it is a hibiscus.

But by any other name, a "rose" will bloom as fair.

Western Beef Industry Growing Out of It's Boots

SASKATOON (CP)—Western Canada's beef cattle industry has grown so rapidly in recent years that its research program has been unable to keep pace.

Cattlemen now are attempting to correct the imbalance through such projects as an experimental beef cattle feed lot at the University of Saskatchewan.

Scheduled for completion next year, it will be the largest of its kind in Canada.

"The farmers' growing economic dependence on beef cattle has spurred the industry's development in recent years," says Dr. J. M. Bell, head of the university's animal husbandry department. "The lack of specific answers from researchers to vital feed and breed questions resulted in much guesswork and led to the demand for such a feed lot."

"Producers cannot take their questions to a specific centre and obtain answers based on scientific findings, Canada as yet just hasn't adequate facilities to do the job. We think the feed lot here will help fill this gap."

There are numerous small research centres but their very size limits the work that can be undertaken and often it takes years to evolve the answers to just one simple series of questions.

Dr. Bell says the industry contributed $130,000 to construct the main feed lot. It will provide facilities for feeding 400 cattle. The cattle will be fed in groups of 16, allowing simultaneous testing of as many as 25 lots of cattle.

Such major problems as the best process to use in feed preparation, feed grades to use, varieties, additives that improve feed efficiency, milling methods, could be attacked at one time and in a scope to provide meaningful answers.

"Nowhere has the feeding value of grain been a factor in plant breeding," says Dr. Bell. "Such research as ours might spark such work. Specially bred varieties of coarse grains with high protein content might make it possible to eliminate expensive supplementary feeding."

At present most feed grain is that which fails to make the grades for human consumption. Few farmers purposely produce feed grains to meet livestock needs. But work by plant scientists could promote greater interest among farmers in consciously growing grain for feed.

The feed lot also will make it possible to doublecheck under Canadian conditions supplementary diets currently used by Canadian cattlemen on the basis of U.S. testing. An example is the use of amino acids such as lysine and methionine.

The amino acids are said to improve the efficiency of beef cattle and this is of major concern to cattle men.

"The transformation of feed to beef is one of the least efficient processes now practised in agriculture. Three pounds of feed can be transformed into a pound of pork under controlled feeding, and two pounds of feed can be transformed into a pound of poultry. But it takes at least eight pounds of grain to produce one pound of beef."

"That's why early projects will be aimed at improving the efficiency of feeding programs. The results will be funnelled to the industry which can use them to increase production, meet the rising demands of a growing population and help to reduce the cost to the consumers."

Dr. Bell says progress in beef cattle research has been slow because of the diversity of the industry.

"There isn't one severe problem that can cripple the industry on a wide basis, such as the damage a rust attack can do to a grain crop throughout the Prairies. Some will mention hoof and mouth disease, but fast action can check its spread. Manual safeguards cannot stop the spread of a new race of rust."

LOOKING BACK with Old Stager

Tramping Down Old Avenues

The original townsite of Kelowna had only six streets, and four streets. In a previous article the background of five of the streets was covered, leaving only one avenue to be dealt with, Caverton Avenue. This was named after a pioneer of the Similkameen Valley, Richard Lowe Caverton, after whom the village of Caverton was also named.

A native of Stratford, Ontario, he had come to Osoyoos first, in 1874, when he became a lumberman for Judge Haynes, on his cattle ranch. In 1884 he purchased, in partnership with some relatives, the "R" ranch, from Frank Richter, and became prominent in the affairs of the southern part of the valley and the Similkameen, and in 1889 was made a Justice of the Peace, an important office in those days.

Now we come to the four "streets," the first of which is "Abbott Street," named after H. R. Abbott, C.E., a CPR superintendent of that period. The CPR wharf was located at the foot of that street, where it joined Bernard, and there is no doubt that Lequime appreciated the fact that the CPR lake steamers had made his town a possibility, and this was the reason he chose a prominent official of the company for this honor.

Next we come to Water Street, the only one not named after an individual. It was so named because most of it, at that time, lay along the lakeshore. The area north of Bernard and west of Water St., was mostly swampy, low-lying land, often inundated at high water.

Mill waste, sawdust, and slabs from Lequime's mill, plus sand washed up from the lake, has since turned it into real estate. I can remember watching them dig up great quantities of rotting slabs and old lumber when they were excavating for the Royal Bank, back about 1909.

I believe they had to drive piles to obtain a solid base to build on. The Rowcliffe Block, nearby, sagged shortly after completion, due to the boggy sub-soil, and lack of solid footing.

Our next street is "Pondos Street," or "Pondosy," as it is now correctly spelled. The incorrect spelling no doubt occurred because of the fact that in the early days people "heard" names, but seldom "saw" them written down.

When they did come to write down, later on, what they had heard, a great variety of results was often seen, especially with French names.

This street was, of course, named after the pioneer Oblate missionary and priest, Father Pandosy, a native of France, born near Marseille in 1824, who came to the Okanagan in 1859 from Colville, Washington, and with Father Richard, established the mission on the banks of the creek that now bears that name, in 1860.

They built a school, church and mission house of logs, and ministered to the Indians, and in due course to the white settlers as they came in.

Father Pandosy, who also spent some years on Vancouver Island and at Ft. St. James, in Northern B.C., spent the years of missionary service here in the Okanagan Mission valley. He died January 1881, and was buried in the Mission cemetery, but the site is now unknown and unmarked. Thanks to the local Knights of Columbus, and others interested, three of the Mission buildings have been restored.

PIONEER RANCHER
The next street in the townsite was called Ellis Street, named after Thomas Ellis, the pioneer rancher of the Penticton district. Tom Ellis came to B.C. in 1868 from his native Ireland, eventually locating in the Penticton district, one of the first two white men to settle there.

Commencing his cattle operations with a herd of seven head, he expanded his operations over the years to where he had large ranges in Penticton, Okanagan Falls, Osoyoos, and even here at the Mission. In 1874 he planted the first orchard in Penticton, became the first postmaster in 1889, built the first steamboat, the "Penticton", and in 1892, the same year that Bernard Lequime registered the plan of the Kelowna townsite, located and partly developed the townsite of "Penticton". He was the first storekeeper there, and built the first Protestant church in the Penticton district.

Last remaining of the Kelowna townsite's early streets is Richter Street, which formed the eastern boundary of the town at that time, and today is Kelowna's longest, and only through street.

It was named after Frank Richter, a Similkameen pioneer, born in Austria in 1857, who came to America at 16 years of age, and after many adventures arrived at Osoyoos in 1884, driving a herd of 42 cattle.

He settled near the Hudson's Bay post of Keremeos, and worked for some time for that company, as well as developing his own ranch. He became, at one time, the biggest rancher in that country, with holdings totalling over 10,000 acres. He had a large family, with five sons by a first marriage, and five daughters and a son by a second marriage, the youngest son being Hon. Francis Xavier Richter, the present minister of agriculture for British Columbia.

Some may wonder why Lequime should have named some Kelowna streets after residents of the Similkameen and Southern Okanagan, but it should be remembered that these men were all contemporaries of the elder Lequime, and the older sons of Richter attended the Mission school, run by Father Pandosy, along with the Lequime boys. In the early days they were neighbors, when white people were few, and a "neighbor" could mean anybody within a 100 miles or so.

Yes, street names of a city do provide clues to its historical background, and preserve the names of the men who helped to make that history.

TO YOUR GOOD HEALTH

She Needn't Be Alarmed

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: My doctor advises me that due to a large fibroid tumor of the uterus I will soon have to undergo a hysterectomy.

Is it considered major surgery? Does it bring about menopause as well as end the possibility of pregnancy? What effect physically and mentally will it have on me?—Mrs. A.K.

Hysterectomy is removal of the uterus, and fibroids are the most frequent cause. A tumor may be so large that there is pressure on the bladder, bowel or other organs. Or, depending on its location, it may be causing excessive bleeding.

Yes, a hysterectomy is major surgery. So is removal of an appendix. However, neither should cause alarm.

Removal of the uterus prevents child-bearing. But in cases requiring such surgery, the presence of the tumor already is, in most cases, sufficient to prevent pregnancy, so for practical purposes this is of no importance.

As to whether it brings on menopause, that depends. If a woman is in her 40's and hence near menopause anyway, adjacent structures, such as tubes and ovaries, may well be removed.

Removal of the ovaries does, indeed, bring on "surgical menopause" although it is, after all, little more than a matter of speeding it up a year or two.

In younger women, the ovaries may be left in, assuming that they are healthy, show no signs of being cystic, etc. In that case, menopause will not come with the operation, but will occur at the regular time (usually about 45) when the ovaries stop secreting hormones in accustomed quantity. If, however, the ovaries are seen to be faulty, this is the best time to remove them.

Physical and mental effect of the operation on you? Physically, once the operation is past, the first effect usually is that the patient begins to feel better. Pressures have been relieved. Sometimes anemia has developed because of excess bleeding, and now this condition correct itself, the patient feeling stronger and happier than before.

As to mental effects, none, unless your psychological outlook is such as to cause it. There is no reason to expect any mental impact. Femininity is not lost or impaired in any sense. True, childbearing ceases, but as a said, it probably was over anyway, so why worry about that aspect?

Knowing these things you will find, I am sure, that the only mental effect afterward will be relief at having it over with.

Dear Dr. Molner: I had a light case of shingles last year and have the same symptoms now except I don't have a rash. Could this be caused by a nervous condition?—Mrs. A.D.

Shingles rarely attacks twice; whether your trouble is nerves or some physical ailment, I won't guess. It needs examination. But I doubt strongly that it's shingles.

March 23, 1963 . . .

British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain announced 24 years ago today—in 1939—that any German attempts at European domination would be curbed at any cost. Hitler ignored this and later warnings and on September 1, 1939 launched his army into Poland and precipitated the Second World War.

1752 — The Halifax Gazette, the first newspaper in Canada, was established.

1936 — Paldan became a republic within the Commonwealth.

University Women's Club Hold Interesting Dinner Meeting

University Women's Club members and the Toastmasters of Kelowna held a joint Dinner Meeting at the Royal Ann Hotel last Monday evening. Toastmaster president Mr. Don West presided. The "Table Topics" provided the ladies with an opportunity to observe a customary Toastmasters' dinner feature. Several Toastmasters were called upon to deliver impromptu two-minute speeches on topics assigned by Mr. Bill Pavie, and these speeches in turn were the subject of kind but constructive criticism by other members. Public speaking which entails presentation of subject matter, posture, the use of the hands and eyes, and voice modulation are some of the facets of the techniques the Toastmasters use and apply in their pursuit of fluency and mastery of the above study was well evinced by the excellence of the short speeches delivered during the dinner.

"It's a Man's World" was the provocative subject for an amusing debate which took place after dinner. Speaking for the affirmative were Mrs. Robert Dillabough, team captain and Mrs. Robert Knox, team captain. John Kaye, team captain and Tom Capozzi, were the speakers. The Toastmaster was general Charles Whinton who introduced the debaters and interpreted the speeches with stories of apt wit.

The affirmative stated the premise that, in our society, the male is accepted as superior being, that women are discriminated against and designated as second class citizens. Tradition, largely, has assigned this role to women, and taboos, restrictions and laws confined their efforts to emerge even as equals to men. Through the years fundamental concepts regarding woman's place in society have changed little. In education she is still regarded as less capable, she does not have complete freedom of choice as to occupation, in business she is rarely allowed to assume a top position. Legally and politically she is discriminated against.

The opposition developed the argument that in a bacterial world, man was necessarily the procreator of the race, that woman was a gender of man and thus, necessarily, regulated to second place. To alter the design would require some artificiality. A theory was also presented to supposedly prove that the world belongs neither to man nor woman, but that it is a child's world, in that man is born a child, is regarded as a child for some twenty-one years then devotes his life to the raising of his children and eventually enters the hereafter as a child.

Charles Webb, the general evaluator, whose duty it is to evaluate the meeting and the speakers, assessed the merits of the debate in a constructive manner. A secret ballot resulted in a draw. It was an evening of great good humour and it is to be hoped that the clubs will meet again at some future date.

Harpist Virtuoso Delights Discerning Music Lovers

By FLORA EVANS
Courtesy Woman's Editor

Members of the Overture Concert Association who failed to attend the Harp Recital of Nicancor Zabeleta at the Community Theatre on Thursday evening missed a unique and interesting musical evening.

The harp played by Zabeleta is acquiring a new status as a solo instrument. The thought of attending an entire evening of harp music might appear to the uninitiated to be a dreary prospect, but due to the fabulous technique and sensitivity of the master the harp becomes an instrument of great diversity of tone and mood.

In the first and more classical half of the program the music was slightly reminiscent of the clavierbord, but as an instrument the harp has far more scope and depth. The clear bell-like harmonics and dynamic control of phrasing were delightful to listen to.

The second half emphasized the diversity of techniques of which the instrument is capable building up to a climax in the closing number "Chanson dans la Nuit" by Carlos Salzedo in which the subtle difference in shading of the soft one colors was completely entrancing.

The harp itself is one of the world's oldest musical instruments and remains have been discovered of harpists who were buried alive with their Pharaohs in the ancient tombs. It was originally a much smaller instrument and it was not until early in the 19th century that Sebastian Erard developed the present day harp which is capable of playing the most difficult music with its forty-seven strings and seven pedals.

Mr. Zabeleta, who was a German concert harp which was made especially for him and is a great deal lighter than the American instrument, told Zabeleta's artistry, and judging me that he has had a special by the many delighted comments overheard at the close of the evening, the last Overture Concert of the season was very well received by the true music lovers of the Okanagan.

Talented New Family Brings Ceramic Arts To The Valley

The many and varied talents to be found amongst the residents of the Okanagan were highlighted recently when Walter Dexter received word that he had won the prize for "Outstanding Stoneware" which is one of the four grand prizes awarded by the Canadian Ceramic Biennial Show for 1953 which is being held in Montreal from March 7-31.

A recent newcomer to the Kelowna district Mr. Dexter with his wife and baby daughter are living on the Benvoulin Road close to the Father Pandosy Mission, and Mr. Dexter, who was formerly a teacher at the Cultural Activities Branch of the Government of Alberta and also an instructor for the Edmonton Pottery Guild, will be teaching at the Pentecost School of Fine Arts this summer.

In the meantime he is starting his own studio here where he will be assisted by his wife who is also an artist and designs delightful jewellery. He plans to

Winfield W.I. Hold Blitz For Cancer Campaign

Wednesday April 24 was the day set for the Annual Blitz Day carried out by members of the Women's Institute for the Conquer Cancer Campaign at the regular monthly meeting held in the Club Room of the Memorial Hall with President Mrs. M. Teal in the chair and twelve members and one visitor in attendance.

It was suggested that each committee be responsible for making one layette out of used materials during the summer months.

The members decided that the Institute would buy two dozen cups and saucers for their own use at refreshment time. The meeting was then turned over to the Cultural Committee who introduced Mrs. L. Lythgoe wife of the Lay Minister of the United Church, Mrs. Lythgoe gave the history of the Nelson Boys Choir who will be performing on April 18 in the Memorial Hall.

The Culture Committee then served refreshments during the Social hour.

ANN LANDERS

Just A Touch Of Make-Up

Dear Ann Landers: It seems like every time I pick up a newspaper or a magazine these days there is an article on "The Plot to Abolish Childhood." Parents are being verbally tarred and feathered for pushing their children into a world of grown-ups before they are ready.

Why doesn't somebody write an article on "The Plot to Abolish Adulthood?" This would help us teenagers a lot. There are plenty of teenagers who are suffering at the hands of parents who are trying to keep us babies forever. Everyone needs a childhood, Miss Landers, but it shouldn't last until we're 50 years old.

My mother told me last night I can't wear make-up until I'm 21 — unless I plan to go on the stage. This means I have to wait six years. She seems to think make-up is only for actresses. Dating is out of the question.

Please say something in your column about this unfair treatment. A CHILD FOREVER.

Dear Child: I don't know how old you are, but I've seen teenagers with make-up so heavy they look as if they're ready for the TV cameras. A 15-year-old should be able to use powder and lipstick, and she should be able to date once or twice a week if her grades are respectable and she can read a wrist watch.

The best way for a teenager to get "adult" privileges is by behaving in a responsible, mature manner which suggests he can handle them.

Dear Ann Landers: For many years I knew a married couple who did not get along well. They had three children.

The woman divorced her husband and the court awarded the children to her. The husband and the court awarded to keep the children. In this state, however, unless the husband can prove his wife is an out-and-out tramp, the children are awarded to the mother.

I have indisputable evidence — precisely what the husband needs — proving the woman is an unfit mother. Now I'm unable to decide whether or not to turn this evidence over to the husband.

I am searching my heart for the answer and I can't find it. This woman once did me a very dirty trick and I'm afraid deep down I may be wanting to get even with her. Revenge is sweet but will I hate myself after I've had my revenge? — AN EYE FOR AN EYE.

Dear Eye: Your decision should be based on what would be best for the children. Under whose roof they have a better chance to grow up straight and strong? Who can give them time, attention, love, and discipline?

I doubt that you are equipped to answer these questions objectively. Let your clergyman decide.

Dear Ann Landers: I like the confidantials at the end of your column. They are intriguing and it's a challenge to figure out the problem from your answer.

Recently in a confidential you made a biblical reference which had to do with casting pearls to the swine. Will you please tell me where in the Scriptures this can be found? I thought I knew the Bible pretty well but this line was new to me.

Thanks, Ann for all the joy you bring and for all the good you do. — MAIN STREET ...

Dear Main: The swine line is from the Book of Matthew Chapter 7 Verse 6: "Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you."

Order Of The Royal Purple To Sponsor Fashion Show

An interesting event of the Spring social season will be the Fashion Show sponsored by the Order of the Royal Purple which will be held in the Riviera Room of Capri Motor Inn on Wednesday evening March 27th at 8 p.m.

The very latest in hair styles will be shown by leading stylists including the Hi-Jow, silhouette, the Sheik, the Oliver Cut and the Betty Brown. The latter two being a natural for summer in beach conscious Kelowna.

Children's cuts and styles will be shown by four year old Karen Gerian and 8 year old Rhonda Mervyn, and styles featuring long hair, short hair, for the teen-ager and the grand-mother, and from the practical to the ridiculous will be modeled.

Dress fashions to be shown are most inspiring, practical, and best of all will work magic on the budget to assure a complete new wardrobe, and for those planning a trip for Easter, the Italian knits, cotton knits and camel hair walking suits will be appreciated. Frosted pastels and darker shades in shantung, printed and raw silk, and synthetics with the new flax textures will be admired, and mohair and laminated coats will be featured.

The new cloche hats that complement the hip belted coats are enchanting and to delight all sun lovers pool-side separates in one and two piece knits will be shown. Bell-bottom trousers and T-shirts, and the ever popular casual wear or patio entertaining are most attractive. For after five the much publicized ribbon dresses will be shown.

and beautiful fur capes and stoles for daytime and evening wear will be an added feature.

Charity is the primary objective of the Order of the Royal Purple and all proceeds will be divided between their various charitable commitments.

Refreshments will be served after the showing.

Vernon Voter Undecided As to Election Outcome

VERNON (Staff) — With the federal election just two weeks away, the average Vernon citizen appears to be undecided as to how to vote as he did at dissolution of parliament.

Of 16 interviewed by the Courier for a survey of voting habits in the city, 14 said they had decided on who should be elected but none agreed on the same candidate. Two said simply "we need a change."

Frank Garver, an employee of the Allisons Hotel is voting Liberal. "Canada needs a change," he says, "and the Liberals are the only party that could form a sensible and good government."

Canada now has 11 years under the Liberals," Mr. Garver said.

George Teatrum, also of Vernon is from the "we need a change" group. Mr. Teatrum said he feels now is the time for another government... but declined to say which way he would vote.

Richard Starkling of Lumby plans to vote NDP. "I am a Labor man, and I believe in the social reform a socialist government would bring. I'm amazed frankly that we haven't had a labor government in this country before this..."

Social Credit is the choice of Gordon McNeigh, a cafe operator north of Vernon. "I vote Social Credit provincially and I will federally. You've got to admit they've done a lot for Alberta and B.C."

Mrs. William Jenner, intends to vote for Stuart Fleming, incumbent in Okanagan-Revelstoke and candidate for the Conservative Party.

"The Conservatives are not as bad as the other parties would like to make them appear," said. "They've done a good job in Ottawa and I can see no reason to change my mind now."

Others interviewed fell into the Liberal or Conservative camp, but few would predict how the April 8 election would turn out. It appears certain that there will be a record vote as interest in the election continues.

April 1, a four-candidate forum will be held in the Legion Hall when all candidates issue their election platform. At the same time, the four candidates will be subject to cross examination from the audience.

COMMANDER'S FUNERAL (Continued) — The funeral of the late Commander of the 1st Canadian Parachute Battalion, 1961, have been disband from the Portuguese army. It was announced Friday. A lieutenant-colonel, three majors, two army captains and a navy lieutenant also were disband.

Pain-Reliever Firms Charged

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Trade Commission has filed false advertising charges against the producers of St. Joseph aspirin.

The charges named Plough Incorporated of Montreal, Quebec, and the company's advertising agency, Lake-Spartan Incorporated of Minneapolis.

The commission Friday charged the producers with misleading newspaper and magazine ads and television radio program spots which based claims for St. Joseph Aspirin on a comparative study of five pain relievers reported in the Journal of the American Medical Association last Dec. 29.

Previously, FTC lodged some similar charges against Sterling Drug Incorporated of New York, the makers of Bayer aspirin, and two advertising agencies.

In the St. Joseph aspirin case, FTC said a doctor writing, had falsely represented that the study report reflected views of the American Medical Association. It also protested a claim that "America's leading medical journal reports St. Joseph aspirin 'your best buy in pain relief'."

TEEN TOWNERS DO A GOOD DEED

Members of Vernon's Teen Town, Ken Borenson, mayor, left; Carolyn Pierce, secretary; Barbara Rose, public relations and town sweetheart, and Irene Stanhik present a cheque for $130 to Mrs. Alayne Moncur, Vernon Branch of the Canadian Mental Health Association.

Mrs. Moncur says the cheque will be sent to national headquarters in Toronto for research. Vernon Mental Health branch sponsor teen town in Vernon, and the cheque was in appreciation for the sponsorship. (Courier Photo)

Jun Billingsley's VERNON VIEWPOINTS

Wonder whatever happened to all that good will the chambers of commerce of Penticton, Kelowna and Vernon were supposed to spread throughout the Okanagan.

Valley co-operation they called it when Mayor Parkinson of Kelowna spoke in Vernon, Mayor Finerty of Penticton spoke in Vernon, and Mayor Cousins spoke in their two cities. It was all sugar and spice and everyone was going to live happily ever after... but alas the Macdonald report on higher education was released. Thus ended the niceties.

Business girls curling league are going to have a ball... but their husbands and boy friends are not invited.

Next Friday the gals sit down to a banquet in the Coldstream Motor Hotel... will have a few cocktails before the 'do', present a trophy or two after dinner (they don't know who is getting them yet—finals take place when ice time is available) and the nuptial down to a short business meeting.

Sounds like a good time... but what happened girls? Why no men?

"Before I was elected to council, I used to believe you," an alderman said the other day. "I didn't think council did any work either... and I know the public meetings are cut and dried."

But our informant insisted council does work, and work hard in committee doing the untold chores necessary to run a city.

That word "untold" tells more than anything else the alderman said because that's exactly what happens in our city council... most of it is untold because that's the way the mayor and some aldermen want it.

If they're doing such a great and noble job why not then holler it to the roof tops. Provincial and federal politicians sure do.

By the way, this alderman is not a member of the Vernon city council but of the Penticton council. And strange he should say public meetings were cut and dried. During Mayor Oliver's reign it was anything but cut and dried. Now had he been speaking of Vernon council he would have been dead right!

Now that the taverns and bars in British Columbia are more civilized (one progressive step: canned music), one man who frequents the Vernon bistros has his own version of what tunes will be played.

None of this money in the juke box for him... he packs his own record player sits in the furthest corner from the bar, plugs in the machine and plays Swedish folk songs like crazy. There's a variety too. He has three records. All Swedish—all folk songs. This is just wizard, of course, if you happen to be Swedish.

NDP Candidate "Amazed" At Sidmouth Area Situation

VERNON (Staff) — Mrs. Isabelle Potheary, NDP candidate in the April 8 election for Okanagan-Revelstoke said she was "amazed at the terrible roads and the number of deserted homes" she saw in the Sidmouth area. She spoke in the area Thursday night.

She said there were other homes "where people do without power and delay all improvements year after year under the threat of maybe no—maybe yes—regarding the Columbia development."

"It is shameful that people should suffer so while the federal Conservatives and the provincial Social Crediters play politics," she charged.

Referring to other developments that could be promoted by federal leadership — secondary industry, and small independent logging operations, she said "all the fault cannot be laid at the door of the opposition obstructionism as charged by the Conservatives. They wanted two months from the end of July to the end of September before they called parliament to meet. They also wanted two weeks at New Year. They could have called parliament to meet Jan. 7 but they dillydallied until Jan. 21. In reference to defence, Mrs. Potheary stated "The Defence

Liberal Candidate Outlines Policy On Columbia Power

VERNON (Staff) — Everard Clarke, Liberal candidate for Okanagan-Revelstoke this week addressed a crowd at the hall at 815 Mile, where he outlined Liberal policy on power development and water storage on the Columbia River.

Mr. Clarke also spoke on the Liberal health program and the Liberal policy on portable pensions.

The audience by its questions showed great interest in local and national affairs and in answer to questions on nuclear warheads Mr. Clarke drew a parallel to the situation in the Americas some centuries ago when about 500 Spaniards with superior weapons were able to bring about the downfall of the ancient Aztec Indian civilization whose thousands of soldiers equally brave as the Spaniards were armed with inferior weapons.

"We must acknowledge the realities of modern technology and have the best possible defences against the weapons which may be turned against us," Mr. Clarke said.

Chairman of the meeting was Murray Alexis, chief of the Head-of-Lake Indians. Convener was Joe Lawrence. Square dancing and refreshments were served by the Westside Ladies' Club following the meeting.

Armstrong Social Whirl

ARMSTRONG (Correspondent) — Wesley Watson of Vancouver visited during this weekend at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Maundrell.

Miss Irene Wills and Mrs. Fred J. Hitt travelled to the coast Saturday returning Monday accompanied by the former's mother, Mrs. Frank Wills.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Saby on Sunday were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Saby with Geoffrey and Darcy of Penticton.

A business visitor in Armstrong was Harold Gray of Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Heal motored to the coast last week to celebrate the 102nd birthday of Mr. Heal's father, S. Heal on March 17. They also travelled to Victoria for a few days visit with relatives in that city.

HAVANA (Reuters) — President Dorticos has warned the Cuban government will use violence if necessary against religious sects whose activities "damage the revolution and favor the counter-revolutionary and imperialist enemy." Premier Castro on March denounced three Protestant groups including the Jehovah's Witnesses who have been functioning in Cuba for more than 30 years, accusing them of "counter-revolutionary activities."

Church Must State Beliefs About Sex

YORKTOWN (CP)—The rectory of a Toronto Anglican church says religious leaders should state their beliefs on sex before "hitting" values among young people.

"All of us have been faced with the necessity of marrying very young couples who shortly will be parents, and noted that such cases are increasing," Archbishop E. R. Sheehan writes in the parish magazine of St. John's Norway Anglican Church.

He quotes a "pained example" of a 16-year-old who told him: "Well, so what? If we get caught we can always get married, and if it doesn't work out we can always get a divorce."

It is a mistake to tell young people that premarital sex is contrary to church teachings, he says, because modern teenagers have little respect for the letter of the church law.

As Christ and his followers entered Jerusalem before the Passover, He sent two disciples to a neighboring town to get an ass, on which He rode into the city. The disciples spread their garments and branches in His path, and heralded His arrival as the Son of David.—Mark 11:1-16.

The next day, Monday of Holy Week, Christ, hungering, went to a fig tree for sustenance. He found on it nothing but leaves; there was not even any of the usual early fruit. He condemned this tree, which was symbolic of the spiritual barrenness of Israel.—Mark 11:12-14.

Coming to the temple in Jerusalem, Christ entered and found it full of merchants and money-changers. He drove them out angrily, overturning their tables and saying that they had made His house of prayer a den of robbers. The priests demanded to know Jesus' authority.—Mark 11:15-17.

Christ refused to tell them for they thought of John the Baptist. Then He condemned them in a parable, in which the vineyard Owner sent His Son to collect some fruit, and the tenants killed the Son.—Mark 11:18-19:12.

BEATIFICATION SCENE

This is the scene in St. Peter's, Rome, for the beatification ceremony of the American, Elizabeth Ann Bayley Seton. Mother Seton, a distant relative of former President Franklin D. Roosevelt, and a convert from protestantism in Colonial America, is the first native-born American brought to the threshold of sainthood in the Roman Catholic Church.

Jail Chaplain Changes Mind On Death Penalty Issue

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—The Roman Catholic chaplain at the state prison in Wethersfield says he has changed his mind about capital punishment.

Rev. Joseph W. Reynolds, who accompanied five condemned men on their walks to the electric chair, said Thursday he now feels the death penalty is justified when a man is "absolutely incorrigible."

Testifying before the legislature's judiciary committee, Father Reynolds recalled that he once appeared in opposition to the death penalty.

He also told about an "incorrigible" convict slated for execution. The man told him he would try to break out of prison if he was not executed. And if the escape was successful, he would not have hesitated to kill again, Father Reynolds added.

The clergyman supported a bill to abolish the natural life sentence, which is mandatory when juries recommend mercy in first-degree murder cases. A natural life sentence—or even 20 years—is far greater punishment than death, he said.

Church Leaders Said Likely Against Desegregation Plan

VANCOUVER (CP)—Rev. Harry Meadows of Vancouver's Chalmers United Church said Thursday night Dr. Hugh Keenleyside probably is right in saying religious leaders opposed plans to desegregate government hospitals in Canada's north.

Dr. Keenleyside said Wednesday that as a deputy minister of mines and resources in 1947-50 he met strong opposition from religious and lay leaders to proposals for desegregation of the hospitals.

As deputy minister he was in charge of the department's Indian affairs branch and commissioner of the Northwest Territories.

Now co-chairman of B.C. Hydro and Power Authority, Dr. Keenleyside also said it is socially more acceptable in Canada not to believe in God than to worship under the wrong auspices.

No Curbs Noted On Cuba Religion

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A Roman Catholic bishop, returning from the funeral in Cuba of Manuel Cardinal Arceaga Beltrami, said he detected no restrictions on freedom of worship in Havana.

"The churches are open as far as I could observe," said Bishop Coleman F. Carroll, who headed a delegation of church officials to Cuba. "But they don't have enough priests to serve them."

Bishop Carroll said the Cuban government did not offer any special help but added that "in all fairness as far as the government is concerned, we were treated courteously and there were no obstacles put in our way."

WORKERS ELIMINATED

RUSSIAN—Four Russian chemical plants will be completely automated by 1965, eliminating no office personnel or shopfloor workers, the Soviet news agency Tass reported Friday. All the work, from technical and economic calculations to control of production, will be done by computers and automatic systems.

Click Of Rosary Beads Replaces That Of Dice

WEST BADEN, Ind. (AP)—School of Philosophy and Theology for Jesuits of the Chicago and Detroit provinces studying for the Roman Catholic priesthood.

The plush little world of the West Baden Springs Hotel began to crumble Oct. 25, 1953.

News of the stock market crash sent its rich, dice-tossing clientele scurrying for home.

Patrons of the 706-room hotel—built around a domed Pompeian courtyard—ranged from the idle rich to Clarence Al Capone, who drove over the brick streets through the garden-shaded grounds in his armored car.

The yellow brick building now houses West Baden College, the

Transfers Hit Family Life

HAMILTON, Ont. (CP)—Large corporations don't realize the danger to family life which follow transfers of executives, Dr. J. R. Mutchmor, moderator of the United Church of Canada, said today in an interview.

Dr. Mutchmor said young children adapt fairly well to moving from one town to another, but children 10 to 16 may suffer "psychosomatic illnesses—bodily disturbances induced by mental and emotional disorders."

School of Philosophy and Theology for Jesuits of the Chicago and Detroit provinces studying for the Roman Catholic priesthood.

Nearly 200 prospective priests spend seven of their 15 years of study after high school there.

DREAM CAME TRUE

The hotel was the dream of Lee W. Sinclair, who decreed it should be circular and support the world's widest dome. He saw that dream come true on June 14, 1922, when the first customers registered.

Sinclair died in 1916 and his heirs sold the resort to Charles Edward Ballard. Under Ballard's management, the hotel attracted more conventions and used gambling more extensively as a consequence.

Ballard closed the hotel in July, 1932, and began looking for a buyer. He met Rev. Hugo O. Mutchmor, a Jesuit and president of Xavier University, and offered to donate the building and furnishings to the society.

After that gift from a non-Catholic, the society began to transform the hotel.

The grand ballroom was partitioned into two classrooms and an auditorium, and the lobby was converted into the main chapel.

Occasionally a tourist gazes while student priests stroll through the worldly splendor, heads bowed over their prayers.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Pam can't keep a secret. She'll probably tell us what she wished before the cake is half eaten.

Whatever her wish, it will be for a little girl type of thing.

But—what of me? What do I wish for my daughter? Success in a career... happy marriage... children... a beautiful home... a fair share of worldly goods... health... happiness?

I suppose I wish all of these things for Pam, in some measure. But if I had to limit myself to a single wish—I would ask for her a deep and abiding faith. How wonderful it is to have an unshaken belief in God's ways and His works, plus the conviction of His love for us.

Some of us may be limited in our ability to give our children material things, but we need never stint on teaching them spiritual values. Start taking your children to church and church school this Sunday.

Royals Less 9-5 To Trail Juniors

TRAIL (CP) — Trail Juniors lost the first game of the best-of-three B.C. junior A hockey final Friday night with a 9-5 victory over New Westminster.

Trail held a 3-1 lead at the end of the first period, increased it to 5-4 after 30 minutes of play, then traded goals with the guest club in the final.

Ivan Shustarik led the attack for the losers with three goals. Paul Shynr and Paddy Driscoll were in on the goals with assists.

For the Trail Juniors it was Bill Martin, Mike Lauchon, Fred Heslop and Mel Unger with two each. Gary Ferro added one in the Trail cause.

TRAIL STRONG

Trail held a distinct margin in the attack and outshot New Westminster 45-34.

Trail found a big stumbling block in goalie Barry Brown. But when they did get by him, the attack was right to the goal-mouth.

Second game of the series will go tonight, with the third if necessary, Sunday afternoon. Winner of this series meets the Edmonton Oil Kings in the Western Canada final.

Cuthbert Surpasses Own World Record

BREKANE, Australia (AP) — Australia's Betty Cuthbert, a triple gold medal winner at the 1966 Olympics, surpassed her own world record time for the 400-yard run today with a 53.3 second clocking in the Australian women's track and field championships.

Miss Cuthbert, who made her name as a sprinter but recently turned to the longer event, bettered the time she established two weeks ago by two-tenths of a second.

Miss Cuthbert won her medals at the Melbourne Olympics in the 100- and 200-metre dashes and by running on Australia's winning relay team.

Today she just managed to beat out Dixie Willis, who also bettered the old mark with a 53.4 time.

Royalites Dump Trail In First Game of Series

The Kelowna Royalites basketball team took a 13-point lead in the two-game total-point provincial basketball semi-finals Friday night, defeating Trail 77-54 in a game played before a small crowd at the high school gym.

The next game of the series will be played tonight at 8.

The winner of the interior crown will host the RCAF team from Vancouver next weekend for the provincial title.

Albin Hocksteiner paced the Royalites to their win, notching 24 points while teammate Bill Martino netted 14.

Playing coach Bill Hanson was high man for the losers with 16 points.

The Royalites started off slow in the first few minutes of the game, having trouble hitting the hoop as Trail took an early lead, but the Royals came back to lead 27-24 at the half.

The Royalites broke loose in the final half, outscoring the trailing visitors 40-23 for the final 20 minutes of play.

Rookie forward Gerry Robertson seeing only limited action during the season, was outstanding for the Royalites even though he only scored six points, he

U.S. Jobless Total To Climb "Unless Growth Rate Rises"

LARRY BRANNON

CHICAGO (AP) — President Kennedy said today that even without a recession the unemployment rate in the United States will climb "steadily and swiftly" to seven per cent unless we step up our rate of growth.

Kennedy spoke of this prospect in a speech prepared for a luncheon to follow his dedication of O'Hare International Airport—the world's busiest airfield.

Kennedy appealed for approval of his proposed three-year tax cut of $10,000,000,000—the first and most necessary step, he said, toward solving the employment problem.

Kennedy said his administration's "No. 1 domestic concern" is jobs "for the total wave of men and women now flooding our labor market." He said it results from a combination of the revolution in agriculture, the flood of post-war babies reaching job-seeking age, and automation. He added:

"Unless we step up our rate of growth—unless we create a supply of jobs that is more equal to the demand—our rate of unemployment will steadily and swiftly climb to the recession level of seven per cent, even without a recession."

A jobless rate of seven per cent would compare with the February level of 6.1 per cent, the highest in more than a year.

In another talk, prepared for dedication ceremonies at the airport which last year handled 11,000,000 travelers, Kennedy said the United States "intends to be a leader in the super-sound age" and develop airlines that will travel three times the speed of sound, or about 2,500 miles an hour.

Color TV Bounces Off Relay

JULIET JONES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Relay 1, having achieved its first transmissions of color television has been formally described as a successful communications satellite.

"Relay 1 has successfully performed all of its experiments and missions," the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said in a summary of the satellite's accomplishments.

"Relay 1, as did Telesat before it, has experimentally demonstrated the feasibility of low-altitude active repeated satellites."

The bidding:

1♥ Pass 2♥ 2♠
Pass 3♠ Pass 4♠

Opening lead—king of hearts.

Let's say you're declarer at four spades and West cashes the A-K of hearts and then shifts to a trump.

It's certain that you will lose one diamond, come what may, and the question is whether you lose two. Situations like this occur all the time, and the problem is how to cope with them.

The one thing you don't do is bank all your hopes on East's having the king of diamonds. It might be tempting to finesse the queen and stake everything on the success of that finesse.

but this would be the wrong approach to take.

What you first do is try to find out where the king is located. In line with this, after winning the spade at trick three, you lead the queen of clubs. When West plays low, you of course go up with the ace, making a mental note that East very likely has the king, since West presumably would have covered the queen if he had the king.

Next you return a club from dummy and ruff it. If East goes up with the king, as is probable, you have a much better picture of the hand than you had at the start. You still may not make the hand, but at least you know that West is the player with the king of diamonds.

This is because West opened the bidding as dealer, and he could scarcely have done that unless he had the king of diamonds.

West was dealt the singleton.

Your only hope now is that of a doubleton king. If he has three or more diamonds, you can't really expect to make the hand.

Accordingly, after drawing another round of trumps, you cash the ace of diamonds, enter dummy with a spade, and lead a diamond. Regardless of what East plays, you duck.

As it happens, West is forced to win with the king and you wind up making the hand as a result of careful play.

YOUR HOROSCOPE

FOR TOMORROW
This will be an excellent time in which to participate in social functions and entertainments held for the benefit of community and welfare projects; for group activities generally. Good Mercury influences also make the day generous where written matters are concerned.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY
If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that your progress in both job and financial matters should prove highly satisfactory in this new year of your life. Natives of Aries are noted for their aggressiveness in the pursuit of goals, so, capitalizing on these traits and taking advantage of all opportunities to advance, you should find yourself in an enviable position by year's end.

Outstanding periods along these lines: the next four weeks—mid-June, late September and mid-November.

Personal relationships will play an important role in your life during late April, early August and late December, when both social activities and romance will be in the celestial spotlight.

Try to broaden your horizons and make the most of opportunities to travel in late July, August and December. Avoid speculation in late April and in October.

A child born on this day clined and highly imaginative.

could be a great success in either the medical or legal professions.

THE DAY AFTER TOMORROW
Highly stimulating influences will make Monday a fine period from both personal and business standpoints. Look for a step-up in all activities, but do not overtax yourself on any count.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY
If Monday is your birthday, the year ahead should be marked by excellent progress where the achievement of worthwhile goals is concerned. Despite occasional obstacles in your path—perhaps in late April, mid-July and October—the overall picture is good for both job and monetary advancement, so look upon occasional setbacks as challenges to be met with confidence and optimism.

Notably good periods for monetary interests: the next four weeks, mid-June and mid-November. Marked for job promotion, recognition the month of September.

Domestic and sentimental matters should prosper for most of the next twelve months and late July and December will be excellent for travel. Avoid extravagance and speculation in late April and October, however.

A child born on this day will be idealistic artistically.

Former Victim of Nazis Takes Look at History

ST. LOUIS (AP) - Kurt Von Schuschnigg, who resigned as chancellor of Austria 25 years ago this month when Nazi German troops swarmed into his country, took a look back into history in a rare interview here.

The man Hitler personally persecuted in 1938 and a professor of political science at St. Louis University. Despite seven years of imprisonment and torture by the Gestapo, he looks more like 50.

"Life has not been easy on me," he said. "I don't like to talk about it with anyone. In fact, I am a fanatical believer in privacy."

On March 11, 1938, Germany invaded his homeland, and Schuschnigg resigned in a famous national radio address, imploring: "God protect Austria!"

A month before, he had taken his flight to prevent Hitler's planned "Anschluss" - political union of Germany and Austria - direct to Der Fuehrer.

"We met at Berchtesgaden and Hitler was adamant," Schuschnigg said. "He told me that either Austria would let him take over peacefully or he would take it by force. He was raving mad at my rejection."

When Hitler struck he ordered Schuschnigg held in "protective custody."

He said Nazi terror tactics practiced against him during what he called "seven years of hell" and those practiced by some Communist nations appear identical. "I think the Russians started it first during their revolution, and the Gestapo merely amplified it."

"I remember the old Metropole Hotel in Vienna which was Gestapo headquarters. I spent 17 months there."

While imprisoned in Vienna he married, by proxy, the late Countess Vera Fugger von Babenhausen. The Nazis later imprisoned her with Schuschnigg in Munich, where their daughter, Susy, was born.

SAW DEATH ORDER

"I'll never forget when they transferred us to Dachau," Schuschnigg said. "I saw a death order for me and my family. But we were saved at the last minute."

Schuschnigg is through as a politician.

"I regret nothing that has happened, although life has not been easy on me. I don't ever intend to get into politics again."

He said he likes teaching at St. Louis University, and beamed at the thought of students he had taught over the last 15 years.

He plans to retire soon. How will he spend his time then?

"I may do some writing, but not any memoirs. In my profession people always have things to do. I am happy here in St. Louis, but each summer Susy and I go to Austria. I am happy and contented. I suppose I am basically lazy."

ANESTHETIC TO BE INVESTIGATED FOLLOWING SERIES OF DEATHS

CHICAGO (AP) - Halothane, an anesthetic linked to 10 deaths from liver damage, will continue in widespread general use while being subjected to one of the largest investigations of an anesthetic ever undertaken, medical spokesmen said Thursday.

The gas, which cannot burn or explode like older anesthetics, was introduced in the United States five years ago and has been administered to an estimated 10,000,000 patients. It is estimated that nearly half the patients requiring an anesthetic for surgery now receive halothane.

In Boston, Dr. Henry Beecher, chief of anesthesiology at Massachusetts General Hospital, said use of halothane has been greatly restricted in his institution because of "the gradual accumulation around the country of suspicious liver accidents."

The New England Journal of Medicine has cited reports that 10 deaths from liver ailments tentatively have been linked to the anesthetic.

Government By Minority Not Rare Canadian Situation

OTTAWA (CP) - Once you've figured out how the April 8 election will go you can start thinking about what might happen if there's another minority government.

Such governments are nothing new for Canada.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker came into power with a minority government in 1957 and asked for dissolution of Parliament for an election nine months later in which the Conservatives won by a landslide.

His second minority government, elected last June, survived eight months before it was defeated by the combined opposition Feb. 5, 1963, when Social Credit withdrew voting support.

In the 1925 election, the Conservatives won 116 Commons seats and the Liberals 101. But the Liberals remained in power with the support of the 25 Progressives.

In 1926, Governor-General Byng refused a Liberal request for dissolution and an election. He asked the Conservatives to form a government. It lasted only three days and the Liberals won the 1926 election mainly on the constitutional issue that the governor-general had refused them dissolution.

AGAINST COALITION

The possibility of another minority government has been discussed a good deal in the current election campaign, with the leaders ruling out any coalition.

On March 19 at Peterborough, Ont., Mr. Diefenbaker dismissed questions about the possibility of forming a coalition with Social Credit. The Conservatives were campaigning for a majority.

Liberal Leader Pearson has said the major election issue is the need for a majority government which would be stable, responsible and ready to make decisions. Canadians wanted a strong, able majority government and could get it only from the Liberals.

Asked whether he would form a coalition with another party if the Liberals didn't win a majority, he said that if no party obtained a majority "all parties will have to consider very carefully the stability of government by some kind of arrangement."

Mr. Thompson, Social Credit leader, and T. C. Douglas, New Democratic Party leader, have said they aren't interested in a coalition with any other party.

Mr. Thompson has said he is convinced Parliament will be a "House of minorities" for some time. This would not necessarily be a bad state of affairs provided bold leadership was exercised. His party would support a minority government as long as its policies were agreeable to Social Credit.

Mr. Douglas also has predicted another minority government. His party would support any party willing to take action to solve Canadian problems but would oppose any party moving toward acquisition of nuclear weapons.

Dief Embarks On Train Tour Through Whistle Stop Areas

REGINA (CP) - Prime Minister Diefenbaker started today a two-day whistle stop tour Friday through southern Saskatchewan and Alberta grain and cattle producing country after warning a Regina audience that the next issue of a United States magazine will advise Canadians how to vote.

He said Thursday night the magazine which he didn't name, will hit the newsstands in the next two or three days. It will not be urging Canadians to vote for the Progressive Conservative party.

"I welcome that... it's a wonderful help," the Conservative told a crowd of 4,500 in the local armory.

Earlier in his address Mr. Diefenbaker recalled that a recent issue of Newsweek, an American news magazine, had carried an article criticizing him.

The prime minister and his party were to set off aboard a special train today stopping briefly at Moose Jaw, Moose, Hebert, Swift Current, Gull Lake, Irvine, Medicine Hat, Brooks and Bassano, winding up tonight with a speech in Strathmore, 30 miles east of Calgary.

After a late morning coffee party in Calgary Saturday he was to visit High River, Nanton, Claresholm, Fort Macleod, and Lethbridge before stopping in Pincher Creek for an evening meeting.
